PAYNTER gained a short lead outside BRIMSTONE ISLAND around the first turn, took pressure from that rival while under confident handling, was nudged along leaving the five sixteenths marker, eagerly widened when put to stronger hand urging in mid stretch then cruised home the final seventy yards. BRIMSTONE ISLAND disputed the pace inside the winner, came under a strong ride around the final turn, continued gamely once disposed and was clearly second best. RESPECTFUL ED , outrun early while under urging, angled in for the drive and had a mild late response to gain the show. SPACE RACE , well placed off the contested pace, angled three wide, was under heavy pressure past the three eighths pole, failed to keep pace and faded. DEACON FURR , wide, raced within range for five furlongs and gave way. MCNAIR AND ADGER came out at the break, was difficult to settle early, dropped back after six furlongs and was eased late.

 Winner sold through Keeneland Association, Inc.
