Footnotes

WHAT'S UP LONELY , away alertly, set a rated pace off the rail, edged away a bit nearing the quarter pole, opened up in mid stretch and held a safe margin under mild hand pressure. LEGAL CONTROL prompted the pace outside of the winner and continued willingly to be much the best of the rest. PARTNER'S HALO broke sluggishly, circled five wide into the lane and lacked a solid response. FIN ADDICT , five wide between rivals nearing the turn, chased the pace, angled in and faded. JUST ADD RUM broke a step slow, was hustled up to contention soon after, had speed into the turn and gave way. HE DEVIL , six wide early, chased the pace to the head of the lane and weakened. VALIANT DAVE flashed speed along the inside and faltered mid turn.
