Footnotes

PROMETHEUS BULL was content to lag to the backstretch, moved up to track the leaders, then inched up three wide to challenge, came to even terms in the late going and won by a head bob. DEVIL'S ISSUE attended the pace for a half mile, dueled with the leader to the furlong pole, took a short lead and dug in gamely but had the misfortune of losing by a head bob. ADAM N RYAN raced unhurriedly to the final turn, crept up while four wide and was closing fastest but ran out of race track. HELIMARK pulled to the front soon after the start, set a contentious pace to the furlong pole and weakened. TROPILUK had an inside trip and gradually gave way. SILVER TERRACE rushed up outside to challenge the leaders but weakened.
