Footnotes

BOUCCANEER BELLE contested the pace for a half mile, kicked away into the second turn when roused then remained well in front under steady urging. STORMS WHISPER was unhurried while trailing to the second turn, was caught behind a tiring LOOK CHILD and had to check slightly nearing the quarter pole then was no threat to the winner while drawing away from the others. MONTADA tracked the pace for a half mile, tried to respond while fanned five wide into the stretch but gave way through the drive. LOOK CHILD was hustled and dueled the winner for a half mile then was outkicked on the second and also gave way through the stretch. DANA SISSTAR saved ground but was never a factor. ICING stalked the leaders four wide to the second turn then stopped. FOOL ME ONCE stumbled one stride out of the gate and lost her rider. The stewards look at the start of the race but made no changes.
