Footnotes

FACE OFF CIRCLE stalked the early leaders, split foes at the three-sixteenths marker, angled to the outside in mid stretch and was up in the final jump. MCQUEEN vied for the lead along the outside, assumed command at the five-sixteenths pole, opened up a clear margin in the stretch but could not hold off the late rush of FACE OFF CIRCLE. KATTEEKISSEM, void of early speed, split horses in the upper stretch and finished fast. KISS BY AN ANGEL dueled for the lead between horses and weakened in the drive. OUR CLEMENTINE, slow early, swung to the far outside entering the stretch and found her best stride too late. TRISKABOO, unhurried early, moved up between rivals at the seven-sixteenths pole to offer a bid but had little left in the late stages. MOST ENCHANTING raced six wide on the turn and was finished early. TATTERDEMALION was seven wide early and into the stretch while failing to threaten. RIO'S ROMANCE showed little in a dull effort. MO'S MISTY was hustled along at the start to vie for the lead along the inside and was taken up in the upper stretch.
