Footnotes

MEGANIZER was unhurried early, made a middle move to steadily advance from four wide, and won driving. JANIES BOUTINIERRE pulled to the fore to set the pace at once, was overtaken in the stretch, but held for the place. BOLD DOLLY pressed the early pace from between horses, was allowed to settle back nearing the second turn while saving ground, then started a rally entering the stretch, but faltered when the rider dropped the whip at the three-sixteenths pole. RED HOT SLEW ranged up three deep to vie for the lead, but tired passing the quarter pole and dropped back. WILD SALSA was boxed in early behind the leaders, and only offered a mild rally in the second turn when clear. BRILLIANT WILLIE pressed the early pace on the inside until weakening at the three-eighths pole. EMILY'S RAINBOW out broke her rider, was hustled to stalk the pace, then flattened out in the second turn, and drifted out.
