Footnotes

COMMANDER PAT stalked the pace comfortably, edged closer on the far turn, seized command in the stretch and won with something left. TELL BRETT raced in striking position, moved into contention on the far turn and battled gamely to garner the place position. HALF A RUMOR set a contested pace and faltered in the stretch. LITTLE WAGON was void of early speed, swung seven wide for the stretch run and proved no threat. BIG FRED pressed the pace and tired after going a half mile. GREENWAY was outrun and offered no bid.
