Footnotes

ALEXIE, reserved in hand while being angled off the inside racing to the backstretch, made steady progress outside foes to challenge on the far turn, took over in upper stretch and went clear under steady prompting. DAWN'S AMBER LIGHT lacked any contending pace, remained well back for a half, then circled tiring foes racing into the lane to be up for second late. HAFTA HAVA HAT was switched off the inside while tracking the leaders to the backstretch, bid in tandem with the winner on the far turn but proved no match for that foe, then lost second late. SCARLET SPLASH saved ground tracking the leaders to the far turn but couldn't produce the needed closing bid. DAY COURT was sent hard to the lead along the inside, dueled for command for a half, was soon spent, then drifted out nearing the lane. EXCLUSIVE BABE was hustled to join a rival on the pace, was used up after a half and gave way.
