Footnotes

MY SPY rated close to the pace inside, bid into the turn, eased three wide at the top of the lane and dug in from there to take over at the sixteenth pole. DREAMING OF ROSE showed no speed about the three path, angled five wide from the quarter pole and steadily gained to get place the closing strides. BOOZY BIRD rated a slim lead two deep while between horses, continued to contest the turn, drew briefly clear a furlong away, was caught at the sixteenth pole then outfinished for place the final strides. WHOOPSIE was well reserved with a brief early lead, settled with the leaders inside, continued to contest the rail rounding the turn then leveled off midstretch. GILDED CASSETTE rated close three wide, held aim through the turn but had nothing further in the stretch.
