Footnotes

CLARE CASTLE rated close toward mid track down the backstretch, took aim from the three eighths pole, dueled to the lead approaching the quarter and dug in under determined handling to inch clear inside the sixteenth pole. SIR CADIAN rated just off the pace inside, drew aim leaving the three eighths pole and dueled gamely from the top of the lane before stubbornly ceding the final sixteenth. O WHEN THE SAINTS rated clear off the rail, came under pressure midway on the final turn, dropped back from between horses into the stretch and weakened from there. BECCA'S BEST, unhurried off the rail, made a mild bid toward the final turn but had nothing further in the lane. OUT DRINKIN' was no factor while saving ground, as was SCARLET AND GOLD.
