Footnotes

DRINK ME CUTE held aim to the half mile pole, took over between horses nearing the three eighths, contested a slim advantage through the turn, drew clear in the upper stretch and lasted well under a steady late drive. SIX PACK SAMMY, unhurried about the three path, improved her position in the five path rounding the turn, the rider lost his whip near the eighth pole but drew close late and finished well in spite of that. CONGA BELLA raced within range outside down the backstretch, dueled three wide rounding the turn and loomed a close factor to midstretch before leveling off. MUFFIN TOP rated close to the early pace inside, eased out making a bid from mid turn then leveled off in the stretch. LOVE IN THE HEIR raced clear early, came under pressure from the half mile pole, contested the rail into the turn then faded from the five sixteenths pole.
