Footnotes

FAIRVIEW HEIGHTS was never far back, joined for command racing three wide, took over on the final turn, relinquished the lead near mid stretch but then fought back gamely to get the nod. FLANKER VALLEY raced wide, took the lead near furlong marker, resisted through the final furlong and just failed. CAPTAIN CANUCK was off the rail and just off pace, split rivals near the quarter pole, was forced out, bumped and took up sharply soon after, eased out and flattened out. JAZZ AND BLUES racing off the rail, had no rally. MERCURIO saved ground disputing pace, drifted out and bumped foe entering the stretch and then gave way. QUALITY KING failed to menace. CRYPTONITE PALACE vied for command two wide and tired. EL TATO, far back, was steered around distressed rival on the final turn and then pulled up. MARITIME MAGIC was racing outside, made a strong run around rivals and challenged but then broke down in his left front and was vanned off.
