Footnotes

SAY A NOVENA didn't break sharply but recovered quickly and was sent up to prompt the pace racing well off the rail, took the lead without need of urging leaving the furlong grounds and drew off in hand. FLOR DE AMELIA bobbled slightly while breaking sharply, set the pace just off the rail, was set down when challenged, proved no match but was clearly second best. PINK CANDY raced outside, challenged near mid stretch but then quickly gave way. BROWN EYED NANCE broke slowest, saved ground and failed to menace. MELPOMENE was well placed between foes and then tired. SEASIDE MAGIC was wide and just off the pace, tired.
