Footnotes

SILVER SABIN had good speed from the outset to duel the entire way, dug in tenaciously through the final stages to hang on in an all out drive. DEVIL'S LIL BIT away alertly, dueled winner throughout, fought back gamely through the stretch but was out nodded at the wire under vigorous hand urging through the final sixteenth. MERCY forwardly placed, had dead aim on the dueling leaders but flattened out in the drive. MISS SOUTHERN SAND raced evenly and lacked a late response while widest through the stretch run. CAPTIVE LADY raced close up for a half, floated wide around the turn and gave way.
