Footnotes

SURPRIZED WINNER was content to let others pursue the pace, sat behind the frontrunners while racing along the inside through the turn, found an opening along the rail at the top of the stretch and was kept to task to the wire. LOVELY JANDENISE settled behind the early leaders and soon angled in to the rail, kept that spot through the turn but eased off the rail and left room for the winner to make his move and fought on to hold second. CEA PHER raced in midpack and came upon the led group entering the turn, was forced to go four wide through the turn and made a bid turning for home, but did not have enough left to catch the runnerup while under a drive. MY LADY MEL contested the early lead between horses, was two wide in the turn and tired in the stretch. B G GOLDEN SUAVE raced along the rail and got caught in tight quarters with three-eighths left and showed little interest after that. WITT'S LADY contested the early lead from the outside and raced three wide in the turn before tiring. STORMIN IRISH LIL trailed throughout.
