Footnotes

QUIET ACCELERATION was five wide in the first turn, advanced down the backstretch and moved out to be six wide in the final turn, was kept in a long drive and drew clear approaching the sixteenth pole. SARAH'S CHIEF had a position along the rail and dropped in to be midpack through the opening turn, was three wide in the second turn, tried to drift in through the stretch but still continued a rally for second. ONLY MAN IN TOWN was three wide in both turns, stalked down the backstretch and hung in the stretch. HALIFAX FLYER swung out to be four wide in the first turn, three wide in the final turn before a determined rally in the stretch. LUCKY RAJA was two wide in the opening turn, dueled for the lead, remained two wide in the final turn but faltered. J W'S NITRO was content to let the rest of the field go on early, had the rail in the opening turn, took the second turn three wide while passing horses and kept the belated rally going through the stretch. RANGE MAN dropped behind the lead group and was two wide in the first turn, did not threaten. ANEW RUMOR was slow into stride and always near the back. SWINGIN CAT settled behind the lead group, inside trip, two wide in the final turn but no threat. ZARBY'S HOME encouraged to contest the lead, had rail first turn, dueled for lead, under a drive approaching the quarter pole, had the rail in the second turn but tired. I AM TARZAN was allowed to contest the lead while four wide in the opening turn and soon tired.
