Footnotes

COUSHATA LADY was quick to chase after the lead and duel from the inside along the rail on the first turn, allowed the pacesetter to move up and stayed to the inside, was passed by a rival from the outside past the three-eighths pole, remained inside, got a steady left hand at the three-sixteenths marker and finally rallied when coming off the rail to pass a horse on the inside and driving to a deadheat win. LENOX LANE entered the turn five wide but found room and was eased inside to be three wide leaving the turn, rated along before being given some rein with five-eighths to go, continued with a steady advance while three wide in the final turn, was given a steady whip but drifted out at the eighth pole and deadheaded for the win. NAVASOTA ROSE was asked to go to the front early and eased in for a three-wide trip in the first turn, drew to a lengthy lead down the backstretch and was about three wide at the quarter pole, dropped down to the rail for the final eighth and was passed while tiring inside the sixteenth pole. CAPOTE'S CHARM was six wide in the first turn, settled in midpack, was two wide in the second turn and finished evenly. LITTLE MISS TISSY was rated while maintaining a rail path on the opening turn, was kept under wraps entering the backstretch, had an inside path on the final turn but tired. JOSEPH COUNTDOWN was unhurried early, let other horses chased after the early pace but traveled through the opening turn six wide, failed to make a threat afterward. CROOKED HALO broke slowly, trailed, six wide in the first turn and no threat. DANCIN N PRANCIN raced along in midpack while four wide in the opening turn, was climbing a bit and posed no serious threat. VERUCA SALT chased the early leaders but soon was under restraint and three wide in the opening turn, failed to keep pace before reaching the three-eighths pole and tired. CRYPTONITE CAT started slowly, raced a bit erratically toward the opening turn, was four wide and had no rally.
