Footnotes

MAMBO AGAIN was allowed to race after the early lead inside, kept close to the rail through the turn, eased out a path in the stretch and was kept under a drive the rest of the way. HANDSOME BLUE stalked behind the leaders, moved away from the rail and was four wide in the turn, turned for home and guided to an inside path, responded with a rally for second. SOFT SHOE two wide into in the turn, dueled with the leader from the outside, was asked at the three-quarters pole, was three wide leaving the turn and could not hold second. RIZZI MONEY settled behind a line of horses vying for the lead, roused entering turn where four wide, mild rally. GABRIEL'S MISSION broke inward at the start and was slow to gain stride, slowly advanced, was three wide in the turn and continued advance along the inside. TUSCAN FEVER was in a line of horses across the track chasing the early leaders, five wide in the turn, had no response. CARRY THE LOAD soon settled toward the rear of the pack, was six wide in the turn and ailed to respond. WINCHESTER BAY was urged along in an effort to make the front after the start, five wide in the turn, tired. ALPHABET RETURN chased the leaders, six wide in the turn, tired. MAJESTIC STREAM raced along in midpack, raced along rail through turn, no response. TYLER ROSEMAN joined a line of horses chasing the early lead, backed out before the three-eighths pole, came under the whip not much later and faltered while wide in the turn.
