Footnotes

KICK ON stalked leaders from outset, came three wide between rivals, responded to strong handling in drive, got up in final strides. THATS A GOOD THING rated off early pace, came four wide when making bid into stretch, gained slight nod mid stretch, went gamely but outfinished on the wire. BRONZE FOX bobbled at the break, rushed to contention along rail to set pace for half, tired. STRONG SEPTEMBER chased pace to top stretch, gave way. JACK AND MAX was not a factor. THE CLIFF'S END was always outrun.
