Footnotes

DON DULCE rated off early pace, moved up along rail into stretch, moved smartly to rail top stretch, responded to steady urging during run to wire, got up in final strides. DIAMOND JOE broke to front, set all the pace, went gamely under pressure during run to wire only to be outnodded in the final jump to wire. STACHYS trailed for half, came four wide into stretch, finished with a solid belated mid track bid. THE ROAN RANGER was never far back, came three wide into stretch, lacked needed response in drive. NORMANDY SHORE rushed to contention while racing wide into first turn, chased pace into stretch, gave way. TED'S FOLLY was never a factor.
