Footnotes

HOYA broke sharply to duel from the outside, gained short advantage then was challenged again entering the stretch, battled gamely to the wire and proved best late. QUINDICI MAN was unhurried early, placed a bid three wide to duel into deep stretch and was out nodded at the wire. WEST OF TEXAS was void of early speed, circled the field going four wide and was up for the show. GILDED PROMISE set the early pace, dueled briefly from the inside then gave way. TOO VALID was unhurried early racing off the rail and lacked a rally. CLASSIC MOVER chased the early leaders saving ground then retreated.
