Footnotes

CHUECO'S KING was unhurried early, sustained a bid four wide, edged clear then widened in deep stretch. WILDCAT JACK stalked the early leaders, moved up along the rail to duel into the second turn, was no match late and clearly the best of the rest. CLOSE PARENTHESSES set the early pace racing off the rail, dueled into the second turn, began to tire in the stretch then weakened. EL CAPI TOO prompted the early pace five wide then began to fade after a half. SUNNY HOPE was unhurried early and lacked a late response. MINISTER FOX was allowed to settle early, went six wide and lacked a rally. ASH WEDNESDAY dropped back early, went six wide near the three sixteenth and improved his position in the stretch. REAL MCGEE showed little in a dull effort.
