Footnotes

MY BRITE CAROLINE chased on the outside down the backstretch, moved up on the outside into the turn, came into the stretch three wide, bid for command three deep in midstretch, took the lead and drew clear in the final sixteenth. BIG TSIMMIS stalked the pace outside a rival down the backstretch, moved closer into the turn, came into the lane between horses, fought back inside the winner in midstretch and had to settle for second. KIDS TABLE sped to the early lead and angled over, maintained a clear advantage to the turn, came into the lane inside a three horse spread and weakened on the inside through the final furlong. BROOKLYN ROSE hesitated at the start and was off slowly, chased on the far outside down the backstretch, remained off the wood through the drive and failed to mount a rally. LADY LOHR stalked the pace inside a rival down the backstretch, fell back into the turn, pulled up midway on the turn and was vanned off.
