CRESTON COWBOY moved up to force the pace, bid alongside rival early and around the turn, drifted out some entering the lane, grabbed brief lead in mid stretch but yielded nearing the wire. TITIAN stalked from off the rail, was fanned five wide into the stretch, continued well off the rail in the stretch and finished willingly. DISTINCTLY tracked pace from between foes then three wide, remained well off the fence into and through the stretch and also went willingly to the wire. BIGBARI between rivals then chased from along the rail, came out off heels in upper stretch then steadied past the eighth marker and failed to recover. KING RED chased four then five wide into the stretch, later angled over but never menaced. EL VALENTIN sped to the front then dueled inside rival on the turn before weakening along the rail.
