Footnotes

I RUN FOR FUN, bumped at the start, was unhurried early, moved up three deep into the turn, went four wide passing the quarter pole, took the lead under left handed urging in midstretch and drew clear in the final furlong. VALENTINE BOY dueled for the lead on the inside down the backstretch and around the turn, could not match strides with the winner in midstretch, weakened on the rail through the final furlong but was a clear second at the wire. BROADWAY NIKA reared up in the gate prior to the start, chased on the inside, saved ground around the turn and lacked the necessary rally through the lane. ALWAYS THE SAME bobbled at the start, quickly recovered to duel for the lead outside then between horses, came into the lane between foes and weakened in the lane while drifting out through the final furlong. ANYTHINGSCOOKIN chased on the outside, went into and around the turn three deep, came into the stretch three wide, drifted out in the final furlong and weakened. SUN'S OUT was bumped at the start, chased outside a foe into the turn, began to weaken on the turn and gave way in the lane.
