Footnotes

EXAMEN stalked the pace a bit off the rail, bid alongside a rival then between foes leaving the second turn, inched away just off the inside into the stretch and won clear under urging. SQUARE DANCER three deep on the first turn, stalked outside then alongside a rival, bid three deep leaving the second turn then outside the winner, could not match that one in the stretch and just held second. RAFALE (GB) pulled a bit and saved ground stalking the pace, came out leaving the second turn and into the stretch and just missed the place. I'M NOT GRAY pulled between horses and steadied into the first turn then was in tight again midway on that bend, chased outside on the backstretch and second turn, came three wide into the stretch and was edged for third. YORKSHIRE ICON (GB) hesitated to be away slowly, settled inside, came out into the stretch and was not a threat. MERINGUE PIE (GB) had speed between horses then angled in, pulled some and set the pace inside, dueled briefly leaving the second turn, dropped back and weakened. SQUARE DANCER wore calks.
