Footnotes

CABO CHICO sped to the early lead and crossed over, set the pace a bit off the rail down the backstretch and around the turn, drew clear in midstretch and held the advantage to the wire. LORD VRONSKY broke awkwardly and was bumped shortly after the start, stalked the pace three deep into the turn, moved closer to the winner around the turn, could not match strides with that one through the lane but held the place. LONE JUSTICE steadied between horses and was bumped shortly after the start, angled inside, chased near the rail throughout, did not rally but held the show. KEY REVERSAL was off a bit slowly, angled outside the winner on the backstretch, stalked between horses into the turn and weakened through the lane. SILENCIO GATO forced in shortly after the start, steadied and bumped a rival, chased on the outside throughout and was no threat in the lane. KEY REVERSAL wore calks.
