Footnotes

FINALLY (AUS) quickly stepped to the front, smartly rated down the hill, spurted clear from the inside entering the stretch and proved best under strong handling. ALERTE ROUGE (GB) close up early from just off the rail, came off the fence nearing the dirt, and finished strongly from the outside to secure the place. SILVER GOLD (NZ) settled early, advanced steadily from the outside and loomed boldly crossing the dirt, could not go with the winner and lost the place late in the drive. HAZEL LOUISE broke alertly and was content to be taken just off the pacesetter, remained prominent to the stretch, then weakened. LEJA lagged back in the early stages, angled out nearing the quarter marker and never menaced. MIDWAY FITZ (ARG) close up early from the outside, raced just outside rival to the lane, angled to the rail and tired.
