Footnotes

LAKE WILLIAM stalked the leader off the rail down the hill, bid outside that one in midstretch, gained command past the eighth pole, inched away and held under good handling. MACWARD settled three deep on the hill, angled in leaving the hill, came out a bit into the stretch and closed gamely. TOUCH OF THE BLUES (FR) settled outside a rival down the hill, came out into the stretch and picked up the show. MALABAR GOLD sped to the early lead, set the pace along the inside, came a bit off the rail in the stretch, resisted some when challenged but weakened in the final furlong. CRYHAVOC (GB) settled four wide early, angled in leaving the hill, loomed a threat along the rail in midstretch but was outfinished. SHADOW CREEK (IRE) chased between horses early then outside a rival, came out into the stretch and weakened.

Winner sold through Keeneland Association, Inc.
