Footnotes

SEA RASCAL stalked the pace to the turn, rallied four wide then was forced out six wide into the stretch by HE DID, dueled that one to mid stretch then drew away under steady urging in the final furlong. HE DID pressed the pace to the turn, made a bid three wide to mid turn, drifted out five wide carrying the winner with him, dueled that one to mid stretch then was no match late but saved the place. GHOST REIGN chased the pace to the turn, also was fanned five wide to the stretch then failed to offer the needed response. CLARE'S TOP CHOICE was outsprinted early, chased three wide, was steered out five wide to the stretch and also lacked a late rally. SWISS ALPINE broke alertly, zipped clear while angling over in the early stages, was two wide and caught mid turn then weakened through the stretch. SUDDEN EXCESS had no speed and trailed throughout.
