Footnotes

SECTAURS pulled to the lead soon after the start, set all the fractions from the inside and was forced to dig in late to hold off ACADEMY SPY. ACADEMY SPY crept up along the rail through the turn, shifted out for running room turning for home and gradually closed the gap but ran out of racetrack. HEMET THOUGHT led the second tier to the middle of the turn, bid three wide and closed willingly but did not menace the top two. ALLEY FIGHTER raced in the middle of the pack from the start and had little response when asked. WARREN'S SECRET prompted the pace to the quarter pole and came up empty. WHITE MARK could not keep up.
