Footnotes

LITTLE ITCH allowed to settle in stride, raced three wide on the turn, swung four wide into the lane, gained command in the upper stretch, increased her margin to the wire and was in hand late. TRUMPING off a step slow and was unhurried, angled out five wide for the drive and showed a late rally. WINDS OF TIME broke sharply and opened up a clear lead early along the inside, could not match strides with the top two late and gave way grudgingly. AUNT JOSIE pressed the pace along the inside and lacked a closing response. JILL ANNE HAJJI raced three to four wide throughout and was never a factor. GALLANT LOVE allowed to settle in stride, lacked racing room and was blocked from the five-sixteenths to three-sixteenths poles and produced no rally when clear. BRONXVILLE DOLL stalked the pace outside a rival, stopped badly in the stretch and was eased in the late stages.
