Footnotes

CORINTHIANNA broke outward a few steps, departed the backstretch three wide, began to pick up the pace during the later stages of the run around the bend, picked it up even more when called upon for a response after entering the stretch, latched on to the two front runners with a sixteenth remaining, outkicked each to prove best. BLUE BALLERINA gave chase from off the inside, took the three path for entrance into the stretch, altered course back into the two path shortly afterwards, reacting to the errant ways from MY COUSIN ZINNY at that stage, launched a strong run that carried her to a slim advantage, dug in with good determination while clinging to it, had the top one range up and make it a three-way tussle by the sixteenth marker, yielded in the final seventy yards but continued onward in a willing manner to procure the place. LARA pursued the leader from the three path on the turn, was carried one path wider for the commencement of the stretch drive, was the second to arrive at the eighth pole, albeit by the slimmest of margins, came in sharply nearing the sixteenth pole, drawing directly alongside the runner up, but without putting that foe in tight enough to effect its run, backed away slightly in the late stages and had to settle for the show. ALLIE SWEET was sluggish in the early going after getting out slightly at the break, darted over to the two path, entered the stretch and lacked a solid late closing response. MY COUSIN ZINNY came inward, bumping with BEAR SLAYER and knocking that rival into BAAL PERAZIM, cut the pace from the two path, drifted into the three path spinning into the lane, taking LARA slightly wider as well, lost the lead before completing the next furlong and gave way. BAAL PERAZIM bumped at the start, saved ground until the quarter pole. LADY GABY off the inside, was five wide at the top of the lane, tired. BEAR SLAYER bumped from both sides at the start, tracked a pair while sitting a loose pocket, gave way.
