Footnotes

CURRENCY SWAP was hustled away from the starting gate to assume a forward position, took up the chase from the two path on the turn being urged along, was asked for more during the later stages of the run around the bend, latched onto the runner up as the twosome entered the stretch, closed in steadily under a hard drive, drawing directly abreast with about a sixteenth to go, wrested away the lead and kicked clear. DOCTOR CHIT broke sharply to grab the lead, tucked along the rail, set lively opening splits, being rated and facing some resistance, got asked for run with the runner up in hot pursuit heading for the top of the lane, held his ground stubbornly during the ensuing furlong although having the original margin held at the quarter pole sliced in half, reached the sixteenth pole on dead even terms with the winner, yielded for good after going a couple of more jumps, dug in well enough in the late stages to preserve the place. UNBRIDLED'S NOTE tracked the pacesetter while taking the inside route, altered course to be outside the front pair coming to the furlong marker, gained ground gradually to secure the show. LAURIE'S ROCKET secured a forward post soon after the start, gave chase on the pacesetter from the three path, was already under urging spinning into the lane, drifted out at intervals during the stretch run, in each instance while being hand ridden. FORT LOUDON raced from off the inside, was put to some encouragement right from the get-go, got set down late on the turn, came up empty. GUN BOAT fell to face at the start, spotting the field a lengthy gap, took a while before settling into stride, had a ground-saving journey, cut the corner under a full drive, failed to make any headway on the front runners. POLITICALLYCORRECT underwent a three wide pursuit, was under a drive by the five-sixteenths pole, folded.
