Footnotes

SATURDAY NTHE PARK made light contact with SPUNKY PRINCESS leaving the starting gate, had control established by the end of the homestretch and was tucked along the rail, cut the pace, being rated along and with the previously-named rival keeping attendance parked to her outside, reached the quarter pole and got turned loose, maintained her ground well during the ensuing furlong, saw the margin steadily dwindle down afterwards, held on with enough determination to preserve the decision. GIANT'S JEWEL secured the pocket before arriving at the opening bend, contently tracked the winner from there, appeared keen, particularly at the top of the far turn, with the pilot at times using a light hold on the reins as a countermeasure, was under some hand urging until pausing, back to a firm hold, nearing the head of the stretch, got committed to angle outward turning for home and was asked for run, was completely held at bay by the winner racing through the furlong grounds, gradually cut into the lead once past the eighth pole, but fell short. GLENWOOD PINES saved ground, held on willingly en route for the show. ACQUISITION race from off the inside, swung five wide into the stretch, lacked the needed response. SAPPHIRE BLUE three wide and asked by the five-sixteenths pole, could only muster up a mild kick. SHORTBREAD SCOTTY bobbed after taking an awkward initial step out of the gate, seriously enough to have the rider cast a glance downward before resuming his ride, raced three wide around both turns, tired. MAVOURNEEN saved ground to upper stretch and was no factor. SPUNKY PRINCESS prompted the winner from the outside for nearly three-quarters before giving way. SARATOGA SUNRISE strung out three wide on the first turn, was closer to the rail on the next one, made no impact.
