DREAMING OF JULIA came away in good order and quickly established control, took up residence from slightly off the rail, sailed along proving very ratable on a loosely contested lead, began to edge away from the competition late on the turn, some having already been asked for a response by this juncture, entered the stretch and was put to encouragement, lengthened away down the lane to win decisively, doing so under a vigorous hand ride. FORM FITTING lunged at the break, settled into midpack and gave chase from off the inside, maneuvered around BUSTLE from the three path, starting the move midway on the turn, cleared into the two path in time for the stretch drive, proved no match for the runaway winner, but held on well for the place. NEON MOON saved ground throughout and was no menace. SENSATIONALIZE three wide on the turn, was already under encouragement coming into the stretch, made no serious moves. BUSTLE prompted the pacesetter from the two path for a half before backing away. PAPER KITE well out in the track down the backstretch, made it into two path before reaching the turn, was put to a prolonged drive to no avail. DECODER left the inside once ALFEET BIRD took up position there, doing so just past the half mile pole, remained unhurried for most of the way around the bend, swung outward, settling into the five path by the head of the stretch, had no offering to render. AFLEET BIRD worked out a tuck along the rail by the half mile pole, took the inside route from that station to the quarter pole, made a sharp four wide angle after entering the stretch, lost her action soon afterwards, was eased coming to the furlong marker, pulled up and after being examined by the track veterinarian vanned off.
