Footnotes

TAPIT DANCER strung out three wide around the first turn, settled closer to the inside upon reaching the backstretch, was guided over to the rail and saved ground from the half mile pole to the five-sixteenths marker, was given her cue angling three wide into the stretch, poked a head down in front at the eighth pole, with a plethora of rivals in close proximity, dug in gamely during the last eighth to prevail. GLAMOUR N GLORY was taken in hand when put in a bit tight in the early going, brought up the rear of the pack for over a half, travelled in the three path and steadily advanced into contention, swung six wide into upper stretch, got straightened away and displayed good energy to garner the place. HEART OF DESTINY was carried inward by QUEEN OF KING ST just after the start, tucked along the rail shortly afterwards and took the inside route until the quarter pole, went the entire way down the stretch stymied amongst and behind rivals, head cocked to the right, appearing to be full of run, managed to squeeze her way between a pair of rivals prior to the wire to take the show. PELIPA raced in midpack from off the inside, swung five wide into upper stretch, and finished willingly en route for the last major check. OFF LIMITS unhurried in the two path for the initial six furlongs, picked up interest during the later stages of the run around the bend, unleashed a run from the quarter pole to loom boldly with a furlong to go, flattened out. FREEDOM RINGS saved ground, attempted to vacated the rail after entering the stretch, made it halfway into the two path when forced inward by OFF LIMITS, herself in the middle of a strong rally at that stage, went fairly evenly thereafter. ALL FOR GEORGIA placed four wide at the head of the stretch, lacked the needed response. AND WHY NOT four wide on the first turn, looped around several rivals early down the backstretch and tucked into the two path, held the advantage for a good portion of the way towards the half mile pole, continued to dispute the pace from the outside with QUEEN OF KING ST for just over six furlongs before backing away. QUEEN OF KING ST broke away a bit awkwardly, came inward gradually while outside a tightly packed group early down the homestretch, leading to a couple of them being placed in tight, went on to grab the lead and settled along the inside, briefly surrendered it to AND WHY NOT on the backstretch but reclaimed it by the half mile pole, continued to argue with that rival until around the quarter pole and faltered. BOURBONSTREETGIRL checked in tight behind rivals in the early stages, raced three wide around both turns and folded.
