Footnotes

INTERCOASTAL got hooked in a head to head tussle with ELDOKTORI during the straightaway approach to the opening bend, backed off after being successfully taken hold of, remained unhurried behind the runaway leader, gradually closed the gap approaching the half mile pole, with the rider still attempting to keep something in reserve, was asked for more in preparation for the stretch drive, continued to cut into the leader's margin during the run through the furlong grounds, reached even terms in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole, went by a couple of strides later, then dug in with determination to fend off the late-closing runner up. EL REAL MADRID bumped lightly with DANTASTIC leaving the starting gate, proceeded to exchange a series of light bumps with the same foe, as the pair fought to establish early position, got the better part of that one, crossing over to the rail just before reaching the first turn, took the inside route before being taken back out to the two path for the run down the backstretch, was reserved from there well off the front runners, began to narrow in, along with a good portion of the competition, departing the half mile pole, angled out three wide commencing to rally in earnest, closed with good energy down the center of the course to make things a bit interesting in the late stages, before settling for place honors. ELDOKTORI dueled for command with the top one throughout most of the initial furlong, sped away when that rival chose to back away, showed the way from the two path while being rated along, saw the lead dwindle down on the far turn, felt the winner's presence with an eighth to, dug in with even more stubbornly, yielded reluctantly at the sixteenth pole, but continued on gamely to earn the show. DOCTOR CAL entered the first turn two wide, only to found himself one additional path outward when DANTASTIC left the rail at about the midway point, continued from there before swinging four wide into the stretch, and came home willingly to take the last major share. STORMY SUCCESS improved position in the stretch without ever posing a serious threat. DANTASTIC exchanged a series of light bumps with EL REAL MADRID during the early stages, was eased off the rail midway on the opening turn, swung four wide into the lane, but lacked a serious stretch offering. B Z WARRIOR stumbled at the break and was never a factor. RIPTIDE (ARG) saved ground and lacked a bid. ONE STARRY NITE three to four wide around both turns, was outrun. DADSF0URWHEELDRIVE was never in the hunt.
