Footnotes

SHEER DRAMA secured a prominent position before departing the homestretch, stalked the runner up, patiently handled, while perched off that rival's hind quarters, picked up interest coming to the top of the second bend, latched on fully by its midway point, whittled away at that lead and displaced a now-roused FLORES ISLAND to lead the field into the stretch, got set down, proceeded down the lane unable to shake completely free, dug in with good determination throughout the stretch duel to prove best. FLORES ISLAND away alertly from the starting gate, quickly established control and was placed along the rail, set the splits, rated and with the winner in close proximity to the outside, had that foe close in leaving the half mile pole, yielded despite getting asked for run prior to cutting the corner into the lane, fought with vigor to re claim the advantage, but got denied. LUNAR SURGE swung three wide entering the backstretch, remained as wide travelling on the far turn, having been placed to hand encouragement, proved no match. KERI BELLE sharply to the inside taking her initial step out of the gate, was grabbed hold and pulled away in time to prevent any contact with the top one, raced three wide on the opening bend and four wide on the next one, got put to a drive prior to the five-sixteenths marker, tired. TAPITINSILVER saved ground until the quarter pole and faltered.
