Footnotes

NOTACATBUTALLAMA offered some resistance before being successfully loaded into the starting gate, proceeded to come out with no apparent mishap, secured a forward position and patiently stalked the pacesetter from the outside under a good hold from the rider, moved when ready to take that rival on leaving the midway point on the far turn, drew even a sixteenth down the road and quickly grabbed away command, responded positively when given his cue at the head of the stretch, scampering away to commanding lead during the ensuing furlong, maintained a healthy advantage, finishing under a vigorous hand ride. IRISH JADE affected by the crowding incident at the break, got squeezed back, settled near the back of the pack and took the inside route, remained unhurried until late on the turn, picked up interest, commencing the stretch run two wide, retucked along the rail very soon afterwards once M SIX was likewise placed along that route, hesitated for a jump while alongside the aforementioned rival before going by, the occurring at the three-sixteenths pole, made steady progress while continuing to hug the inside, encountered an erratic ARCTIC MISSILE approaching the sixteenth pole, hesitated once again, this time for two strides, before squeezing along a tight opening to shoot by this one too, displayed a solid burst of energy under strong hand urging to safely secure the place. ARCTIC MISSILE came out sharply at the start, was pulled off the nearest opponent at the time to prevent any real contact, but with the result of causing some crowding, fought against the bit while striding greenly making his way towards the opening bend, went about more professionally soon afterwards, saved ground, was put to some encouragement angling outward at the quarter pole, kept an erratic course down the lane under a strong left handed whip throughout most of it. LEILANI'S TICKET got bumped after the start, swung three wide into the backstretch and remained out there around the far turn, moved up under solid urging leaving the five-sixteenths pole, lost contact with the winner after turning for home, steadily weakened in the final furlong. M SIX got away slowly, was angled off the inside under urging just past the quarter pole, lacked the necessary stretch response. SONG OF ASPEN was lightly bumped a short distance from the starting gate, raced three wide around the second turn, failed to gain during the stretch run. TEQUILA HERO three wide on the opening bend, raced a bit closer to the rail thereafter, folded. NIGHT EDITOR was bumped shortly after being pulled away from an oncoming ARCTIC MISSILE at the start, settled into the middle of the field from off the inside, got called upon after entering the stretch, was switched over to light hand urging when placed between rivals in the later stages of the stretch drive, eventually steadying off another's heels prior to the wire. SLIMSHADY quickly established control, set moderate fractions while being rated along the inside with the top one paying attention one lane directly to the outside, succumbed when put to the test by that rival at the five-sixteenths pole and retreated.
