Footnotes

ADJACENT kicked clear of the others and was guided over to the rail, proved ratable showing the way from the inside, on a loosely-contested lead, felt the presence of an energetically handled WARM HUGS leaving the five-sixteenths pole, and was asked for run herself about two jumps before reaching the end of the second turn, reached the eighth pole with the aforementioned rival only a long head shy of grabbing the lead, dug in stubbornly, refusing to let that one or the eventual second place finisher snatch away the verdict. SYLVESTRIS (IRE) stumbled at the start, yet out broke most of the competition, went on to secure the pocket and patiently tracked the front runners from that spot, remained unhurried during the initial portion of the stretch run, got altered into the three path at three-sixteenths pole, and responded positively when given her cue after finishing this maneuver, came home with good energy but fell short. WARM HUGS assumed the role of stalker in the opening stages, got let out a notch coming to the three-eighths pole, then a bit more and more until under a drive a few strides prior to arriving at the head of the stretch, gained ground readily during the run through the furlong grounds, with only a slight deficit left to make up by the end of it, could gain no additional real estate and had to settle for the show award at the end. EYE CANDY ANNIE saved ground throughout, raced on hold behind foes on the far turn, entered the stretch with sufficient clearance but lacked the needed response. NAMASKARA was tipped off cover and into the three path at midpoint down the backstretch, continued from out there around the far turn, weakened steadily after turning for home. LEMON TIGER unhurried from off the inside for nearly three-quarters pole, was fanned four wide into upper stretch while in hand, had that grip released near the three-sixteenths pole, made no headway on the front runners. TOTHEENDOFTHEEARTH (IRE) raced along the outside and was outrun.
