Footnotes

BOURBON TWIST was asked some after breaking last from the outside, anticipated getting caught wide then was taken back before the first turn, was reserved just behind rivals while two to three wide on that bend, continued under some restraint towards the rear, rallied quickly while three then four wide on the far turn, swept to the lead approaching the quarter-pole, dropped to three wide while in front into the stretch, kicked clear under a left-handed whip, drew off into the final furlong while under urging then was eased up in the final sixteenth a much the best winner. THE LADY SAYS YES was taken back to avoid being wide early, raced near the inside on the first turn, was reserved at the back, moved out some outside the half-mile pole, was asked shortly thereafter, shifted further out leaving the backstretch, circled four then five wide on the far turn, was outkicked by the winner while four wide into the stretch, came under a right-handed whip, moved into second in the final furlong and was eased up while clearly second best in the end. MOONLIT SONNET was a bit reluctant to load, pulled while two then three wide on the first turn, moved up late on that bend, stalked the pacesetter on the outside, turned up the pressure on the far turn, swished her tail when JOHN'S MARSH ran up on her heels at the five-sixteenths, failed to match strides with the winner coming into the stretch, chased under the whip and weakened while just able to hold the show. JOHN'S MARIAM came out a bit at the start, showed early speed while in hand, raced off the rail while under heavy restraint on the first turn, was wrestled back entering the backstretch, came under urging outside the half-mile pole, was hard ridden while off the rail early on the far turn, brushed with OUR FAVORITE PLACE and was in tight off the heels of MOONLIT SONNET passing the five-sixteenths pole, dropped back some in the process, bumped soundly with OUR FAVORITE PLACE at the top of the stretch and hesitated, regained momentum by the three-sixteenths pole and finished willingly to just miss the show. J ROSE GAL saved ground on the first turn, was well placed a bit off the rail on the backstretch, came under urging while inside on the far turn, lost position as rivals advanced on the outside leaving the far turn, came under a drive in upper stretch and failed to rally. FLATTERMEWITHROSES set the pace on the inside through slow fractions, was challenged on the far turn, lost the lead coming to the quarter-pole, dropped back under the whip and gave way. OUR FAVORITE PLACE was a bit reluctant to load, went three then four wide on the first turn, settled just off the pace while on the outside, chased three wide on the far turn, brushed with JOHN'S MARIAM passing the five-sixteenths pole, bumped soundly with that rival at the top of the stretch and came up empty.
