Footnotes

SLAMARAMA came out of the starting gate alertly and established control, cut the pace on a loosely-contested lead being rated along the inside, kept CHUCKLE at bay during the later stages of the run around the far turn then got called upon leading the field into the lane, extended the advantage to its biggest arriving at the eighth pole, held sway, finishing the final seventy yards hand urged. SAINT VIGEUR sat reserved from the outside in the opening stages, swung into the three path departing the backstretch, began to close the gap under strong handling a short distance from the quarter pole, came four wide into the stretch, got straightened away and sped past several rivals to be second in line with an eighth to go, continued onward willingly but had to settle for the place. SECRETIVE took the inside route, was lightly hand urged bidding time from the five-sixteenths pole until the head of the stretch, was taken in hand, and forced to idle behind a tiring rival commencing that action at the three-sixteenths pole, inched outward and split rivals a sixteenth down the road, kicked in with well belatedly to earn the show. MO JO rode the hedge for nearly three-quarters, was put to some encouragement and angled to the outside, continued to swing wider and wider until in the four path and under a drive entering the stretch, came home with good energy to grab the last major check. SECURITY ANALYSIS worked out a tuck into the two path about midway around the opening bend, raced between rivals for a good portion of the way around the subsequent one, got roused leaving the three-eighths pole, failed to pick up the pace appreciably and gave way. CHUCKLE contently stalked the pacesetter two wide until the quarter pole, got set down for the stretch but soon backed away. O'PRADO OLE three wide entering the far turn, exited it five wide, lacked the necessary response. CUMBERLAND CHIEF saved ground to no avail. HIS HONOUR (GER) three wide around both turns, was through after going six furlongs. SOULSINGING faded off a ground-saving journey.
