Footnotes

TRUE FORTUNE broke on top, held a slim advantage while proceeding down the backstretch, was gradually taken over to the inside, settling along the rail by the seven-sixteenths pole, argued to maintain control, hounded by another pair in the two paths directly to the outside, needed to be asked for some run by the five-sixteenths pole to stay in the skirmish, emerged from the furlong grounds holding her biggest advantage, however unable to shake off her chief nemesis, had the lead cut down in the half during the ensuing furlong, but dug in well to hold sway. POLAN hard to load into the starting gate, came away with no apparent mishap, pressed the issue from the three path on the turn, the widest of the three front runners, fell back slightly from upper to midstretch, staged a mild comeback afterwards, but had to settle for the place. BIT BUSTIN outrun early, picked up interest late on the turn, was already under some encouragement fanning outward into the lane, left the three-sixteenths pole five wide, flashed good, but belatedly foot en route for the show. SPINIT TO WINIT stumbled badly at the start, recovered and tracked the pace dispute while sitting a loose pocket, was angled outward in upper stretch, lacked the needed response. CARLA SWEETREVENGE contested the pace from between opponents until the quarter pole before backing away. ROSES FOR ROMNEY off the inside, swung four wide into the stretch, had no rally. MONONOKE three wide and striding out greenly at the end of the backstretch, was guided over to the rail by the midway point on the turn, cut the corner under urging, angled out during the early stages of the stretch run, tired.
