Footnotes

PRETTY COZZY reserved along the hedge during the early going, slipped out departing the backstretch, made steady progress during the run around the bend, responded well when put to encouragement turning for home, closed in on the front runners, deftly split rivals coming to the eighth pole to continue the bid, continued onward relentlessly, finally get a nose in front in the last jump. PEA STONE away well, outsprinted several foes to establish command, began to noticeably fight against the bit coming to the turn, settled down soon afterwards, showed the way towards the inside with a trio pursuing in close proximity, was put to the test approaching the five-sixteenths, shook free by upper stretch, lengthened away to a comfortable edge with an eighth to go, felt the top one's presence leaving the sixteenth pole, dug in gamely before getting caught in the final stride. BEN'S BOOTS within range, angled three wide into lane prior to being called upon, and came home willingly en route for the show. GLORY CHASER well placed tracking the front runners from along the hedge, weakened during the final furlong. MOONWALK BEAUTY lagged behind during the initial stages, swung very wide into the lane, eventually settling into the six path at the head of the stretch, displayed a mild rally after being straightened away. AURIC GIRL spotted the field a significant head start after breaking in a tangle, rejoined the back of the pack after being allowed to settle into stride, was guided over to the inside leaving the backstretch, failed to reach a contending position. MAX'S RUNNER broke in the air at the start, underwent a three wide pursuit and tired. Z CATS MEOW was never in contention. HUNNY OF A TOUR raced three wide and gave way. MSJERSEYROULETTE fanned five wide into the lane, had no serious stretch offering. SARATOGA TIGER vied from the two path and faded. ANGEL WAVE four wide, bolted on the turn, was eased to the wire and subsequently vanned off.
