Footnotes

STORMY MIRAGE well placed along the inside, advanced towards the embattled duo after being roused midway on the second turn, swung outward turning for home, continued working his way to the front, reached even terms with BIG JEROME in the vicinity of the sixteenth pole and proved best under energetic handling. BIG JEROME contested the pace along the inside, shook free of EVADE as the field headed home, dug in when the top one made his presence with a sixteenth remaining, before yielding ground grudgingly. EVADE vied for the lead along the outside for six furlongs, weakened a bit during the final furlong. SENOR ENRICO raced between rivals and had a mild rally. INTO THE WIND was four wide throughout after entering the backstretch, lacked the needed bid. DOCKMASTER was never a threat. ROMP (ARG) was no factor. HINT saved ground throughout. CHALOOK was never involved. HERALD SQUARE underwent a three wide journey, was urged on the second turn to keep pace, backed off. FIJONNES saved ground to no avail. MASTERMIND was no menace.
