Footnotes

DELTA THUNDER bobbed after being bumped at the start, received strong right handed encouragement in an effort to maintain a reasonable striking position, was given the same treatment soon after departing the chute, got placed to a long drive commencing at the half mile pole, made only minimal progress during the ensuing quarter of a mile, began to gather momentum as he swung five wide into the lane, narrowed in during the early portion of the stretch run, then sustaining the bid, overhauled a weakening leader in deep stretch to earn the decision. BELONGS TO SHEILA prompted the pacesetter towards the two path, issued his challenge for the lead starting from the seven-sixteenths pole, took over as the field approached the quarter pole, spurred away to a sizeable advantage during the run through the furlong grounds, began weakening with a sixteenth to go, yielded readily once confronted by the top one but held well enough to secure the place. ROTTEN TO THE CORE forwardly placed from the outside, came four wide into the stretch and rallied mildly to grab the show. INSIGHTFUL chased three wide and folded. CUSTERS LAST STAND bumped at the start, failed to menace. FORTY THIRD RECON rushed up to the front under mild urging after the start, showed the way along the inside with a pair of opponents in close proximity, was put to the test around the seven-sixteenths, succumbed soon afterwards and faded. ADAM BOY was steadied after being bumped from both sides at the start, and was outrun thereafter.
