Footnotes

SALTY LITTLE SIS took control soon after the start, set the pace under a firm hold slightly off the inside, with SHE'S GOT RULES perched just off her hind quarters, sped away from that rival nearing the quarter pole, still well in hand, drew out to a commanding lead during the ensuing furlong, then continued on home in authoritative style, under a very light hand ride. SHE'S GOT RULES rushed up to a forward position, needing only mild encouragement to do so, patiently stalked the leader from the outside until midway on the turn, failed to keep pace despite being urged along, but continued on willingly during the stretch run to take the place. SOLDIERETTE saved ground until the quarter pole and was along for the show. BEING QUEEN failed to menace. JILLI'S JOY was through after going a half. BIRD IN HAND was bothered and carried out a path or two when BANDIT LADY tried to come out in the vicinity of the seven-sixteenths pole, went four wide to circle past that troublesome rival, settled eventually into the two by the head of the stretch and steadily tired thereafter. BANDIT LADY displayed greenness swerving out suddenly at the seven-sixteenths pole before fading.
