Footnotes

CAVALLO PAZZO sprinted clear in the early stages, dug in when challenged at the quarter pole, shook off HURRICANE HEAT in midstretch then held off the runner-up in the late stages. MORE THAN A REASON settled just off the early pace, angled three wide at the quarter pole and closed steadily but could not get up. JAMES WILFRED raced well back to the turn and drifted out while gaining in deep stretch. HURRICANE HEAT pressed the pace from outside, drew nearly even with the winner at the quarter pole, remained a factor into midstretch and weakened. JACK ON THE ROCKS broke in the air at the start, raced far back for a half, swung six wide at the quarter pole and rallied belatedly in the middle of the track. UNBRIDLED DANGER raced wide while fading after going a half. EXECUTIVE SEARCH never reached contention.
