Footnotes

ROSE CATHERINE bumped at the start, tucked into the pocket soon afterwards, tracked the front runners while under a good hold, angled three wide nearing the quarter pole, gearing up for the stretch drive, took charge during the ensuing furlong, then held sway while being hand encouraged to the finish line. BROKEN DREAMS bumped with ROSE CATHERINE at the start, sat reserved along the hedge, was still under a good hold turning for home, angled outward, was given her cue in the vicinity of the three-sixteenths pole, closed with good energy down the course to garner place honors. KARAKORUM ELEKTRA patiently took the inside route, was maneuvered out to the two path after setting into the lane, gained readily during the run through the furlong grounds, deftly split rivals at the sixteenth pole to continue her bid, finishing with good courage to grab the show. QUEBRADA SHINER (ARG) lagged behind along the inside, left the rail at the eighth pole and came home willingly en route for the last major share. CANADIAN BALLETT disputed the pace from the two path and gave way. WAR KILL was taken hold off after breaking out a bit at the start, raced along the outside in midpack, lacked the necessary stretch when called upon in the stretch. STORMANDAPRAYER dueled along the inside until upper stretch and faltered. LOOKALIKE was never in contention. LADY RIZZI urged on turn to keep pace, tired. AHVEE'S DESTINY underwent a three wide chase and folded. EXTRAVAGANZA put to some encouragement, was out sprinted for the early lead, continued the pursuit from the three path but had nothing left to offer for the stretch drive.
